

Daytona DF1 Champs 2015

Round 3 of the Daytona DF1 Champs saw 14 lights and 13 heavies take to the circuit for their respective races with the Lights up first...

Adam Bach was the driver setting the pace throughout qualifying, topping the time sheets in each of the 3 sessions with his eventual pole position time being 33.514 seconds. Just over 0.15 clear of Dave Parker who was 0.03 faster than Michael Anthony in 3rd position.

Adam got a good start and began to pull away. A lot of position changes further down the pack meant regular front runner Adam Davis made his way into 2nd position with Daniel Parker following him. Dave Parker and Michael Anthony struggled for race pace dropping down to 4th and 5th respectively. Adam Bach held onto his lead to take the race win by 17 seconds and setting fastest lap on his way.

Heavyweight pace setter Dwayne Marsden was at it again setting fastest laps in all 3 qualifying session. With a very impressive lap of 33.342 seconds in qualifying 3 that would have put him on pole position for the lightweight event! Good laps from Ryan Welch and Matthew Mclachlan put them in 2nd and 3rd on the grid.

Dwayne again made a very strong start and aimed to pull away, not quite having the pace he had in qualifying he struggled a little to break away from Ryan Welch. Further back after a good battle Julian Philippe managed to pass Matthew for 3rd position and showed very impressive pace holding fastest lap until the final lap of the race. Matthew struggled during the race and continued to slip back into 7th position by the end of the race. Newcomer to the Series Ryan Gilmore put in a very strong performance finishing 6th position ahead of some very experienced racers. Dwayne Marsden set a fastest lap of 33.144 seconds on the final lap and took the race win by 8 seconds over Ryan who was a further 12 seconds ahead of Julian.
