Inkart Championship 2015

Heat 1

Alex Whipday started heat 1 for the final round in pole position. Alex led away the pack cleanly, ahead of Joe Slamon on Jake Liptrott. Alex had an enviable gap by the end of lap 1. After a good getaway at the start, Liam Yarwood managed to overtake Borghini Lam and

Daniel Sherry. Eric Su was also on a charge, managing to overtake Borghini, Liam and Daniel to get himself up to P4. Joe Slamon in P2 was holding off an attacking Jake Liptrott who was being pursued by Eric, however, Eric was soon able to pass Jake, getting him into the top three. Shortly afterwards, Eric managed to overtake Joe on the entrance to the tunnel to take P2. Chequered goes out and Alex Whipday wins from a charging Eric Su and Joe Slamon.

Heat 2

Liam Yarwood started heat 2 in pole position. A clean start was made by all, Eric Su immediately attacking and getting past Borghini Lam on the entrance to the tunnel and latching onto the race leader. A lap later in the exact same spot, Eric performed the same overtake on Liam. Towards the back of the field Alex Whipday managed to overtake Joe Slamon for P6 and proceeded to charge through the field. Borghini Lam was all over the back of Liam Yarwood, however contact between the pair at turn 8 allowed Jake Liptrott to pass and get up to P3. Jake was passed in the latter stages by a storming Alex Whipday. Eric Su won heat 2, followed by Borghini Lam and Alex Whipday.

Heat 3

Heat 3 turned out to be an uneventful heat with the only positional change at the back of the grid. Eric Su led the pack away cleanly and was pursued throughout by Liam Yarwood and Borghini Lam, who was close behind in third. A determined Borghini managed to slide his kart on the inside of Liam's at turn 2 to claim second and start chasing Eric in P1. Throughout the race, Borghini looked the faster driver, however Eric demonstrated how well he can defensively drive, managing to hold off Borghini for the race duration. A black flag for Dominic Roberts for contact with Joe Slamon saw the only positional change of the race. Eric crossed the line first, very closely followed by Borghini Lam and Liam Yarwood.

Heat 4

Daniel Sherry led away the pack for heat 4. Jake Liptrott got a great start and managed to overtake Borghini Lam almost instantly of the line. Alex Whipday who lost ground at the start managed to follow Jake through to overtake Borghini. A struggling Dominic Roberts was passed by Jake, Liam and Borghini in very quick succession. Borghini was very aggressive this race, and it was working for him, managing to overtake Liam with a daring lunge into turn 9. Towards the end of the race, an already struggling Dominic suffered a kart failure. Daniel Sherry crossed the finish line to take his first win from round 4. Jake Liptrott followed soon behind in second after climbing from last place with Joe Slamon rounding out the top 3.

Heat 5

Dominic Roberts started the final heat in pole position. The lights went out and Eric dived straight across a fast starting Liam Yarwood. Alex Whipday quickly managed to pass Jake Liptrott for P2 before setting his sights on Dominic. Eric Su received a black flag for contact at turn

1 with Jake Liptrott. Daniel Sherry displayed sublime overtaking skills, managing to haul himself up from last on the grid to P2. Eric started to fight back after his black flag and like Daniel started to climb back through the field. The chequered flag was waved and it was Alex

Whipday who crossed the line first, followed by an impressive Daniel Sherry and Eric Su in third.

'B' Final

Dominic Roberts led away the four drivers for the 'B' final. A clean get away was made by all. In the early stages, Dominic was able to create a gap to second placed Joe Slamon. Liam Yarwood and Jake Liptrott had a good battle over P3 for the race duration.

In the closing stages, Joe started to reel in Dominic, however, ran out of laps to mount an attack on Dominic. Dominic won the 'B' final and progressed into the 'A' final, Joe Slamon finished a solid second place and Jake Liptrott held off Liam Yarwood to finish P3.

'A' Final

The 'A' final was like heat 3, rather uneventful! The order that the grid set off in was the order they crossed the line when chequered went out. Eric Su finished 2.7 seconds in front of Alex Whipday with Daniel Sherry a further 10 seconds behind.
