going straight on at the exit of the tunnel. The driver was okay and the session was resumed under full course yellows, the yellows were cleared and Nathan bolted, managing to create and then extend a gap over P2 driver Thomas Oxley. Euan Allison was sticking to the back of Thomas like glue, however he was unable to force him into a mistake. The chequered flag is waved and a convincing win by Nathan Smith, followed by Thomas Oxley and Euan Allison.

Heat 2

Jordan Cain starts heat 2 in pole position. The lights go out and it was a relatively clean get away, there's some minor contact behind, allowing Jordan to instantly create a gap to the chasing pack. At the back, after losing out earlier on in the race, Tyus Stevens was trying hard to regain the position lost to Hugo Cunningham, in the process earning himself a bumping warning. Meanwhile P2 driver Oliver Aloul was having a solid race and setting his sights on reducing the gap between himself and Jordan Cain. Tyus finally makes a move on Hugo and makes it stick and gets himself up to P6. The chequered flag goes out; Jordan Cain leads from Oliver Aloul and Bhavmeet Singh.

Heat 3

Heat number 3 saw James Brown and Thomas Oxley start on the front row. It was a clean start by all, with all karts being nose to tail for the first lap. Jordan Cain in P4 quickly disposing of P3 driver Oliver Aloul. The battle between Jordan and Thomas allowed James to create a gap out front. A fast starting loan Evans manages to get past Euan Allison, allowing him to chase down heat 1 winner Nathan Smith for P5. Back out front, an excellent demonstration of defensive driving by Thomas Oxley was preventing Jordan from getting through, however at the turn 2 hairpin, Thomas left a gap just wide enough for Jordan's kart and he took the opportunity. James Brown leads the drivers across the line, followed by Jordan Cain and Thomas Oxley

Heat 4

Pole position for heat 4 was occupied by Hugo Cunningham. A determined Nathan Smith instantly overtakes Tyus Stevens at the start, the field of drivers are closely packed together, pushing hard, there's contact between Nathan and poleman Hugo at turn 8. Both escape unaffected. A black flag is waved at Bhavmeet Singh for an over ambitious move which saw him gain advantage by contact, a 5 second penalty soon followed. P4 man Ollie Shaw makes a move on Tyus and gets himself up in to P3. Nathan refused to give up, however he ran out of time. Hugo leads the drivers across the line, followed by Nathan Smith and Ollie Shaw.

Heat 5

Heat 5 sees Ollie Shaw and Bhavmeet Singh start on the front row. Alex Bomberg gets a great start from P3 to demote Bhavmeet into P3. The field is closely bound together. Alex makes a lunge on P1 racer Ollie Shaw on the way into turn 8; a defenseless Ollie concedes the position and promotes Alex into P1. The pair start to pull away from the rest of the field. Further back Oliver Aloul overtakes Tyus Stevens then on the last lap manages to overhaul loan Evans to get himself up to

P4. The chequered goes out and it's Alex Bomberg that leads Ollie Shaw followed by a strong performing Bhavmeet Singh.

Heat 5 winner Alex Bomberg lines up in P1 for heat 6. A quick reaction by all as the lights go out, 3rd place driver Oliver Flexen instantly getting a move done on a napping Euan Allison. Mayhem at turn 2, where nearly all karts become stationary. Jordan Cain the main benefactor, managing to not only overtake Thomas Oxley, but Harry Knowles, Hugo Cunningham and Euan Allison to get himself up to P3, Jordan then makes light work of Oliver Flexen to get up into P2. A close battle at the back between Harry Knowles and Hugo Cunningham was starting to unfold when the chequered went out. Another win for Alex Bomberg followed by a storming Jordan Cain and Oliver Flexen.

Heat 7

Oliver Flexen lines up next to Harry Knowles for heat 7. Seb Duesbury making an excellent start to get himself up to P2 around the first corner. A terrible first few laps for loan Evans sees him spin at turn 8. Nathan Smith manages to get past Oliver Aloul mid-way through the race. Nathan has a look at a move on Harry on the outside of turn 4 and sets himself up nicely for turn 6 and keeps the position, up to P3 now. Oliver looks at a move into the turn 8 hairpin, side by side with Seb, and comes out on top, Oliver now up to P4. Chequered goes out and an unchallenged Oliver Flexen wins heat 7 followed by Seb Duesbury and Nathan Smith.

Heat 8

Pole position goes to Seb Duesbury in heat 8. A chaotic start allows P4 racer Jordan Cain to overtake his three contemporaries in front in one corner. Harry Knowles is given a black flag for advantage by contact on the turn 3 hairpin. It gets worse for Harry when he is shown the blue flag to allow the leaders through. Ollie Shaw holds onto P3 just behind Seb. Out front Jordan was comfortably extending his lead lap by lap. Alex Bomberg executes an excellent manoeuvre similar to that of Nathan Smith in heat 7 around turn 4 on Bhavmeet Singh. Jordan Cain wins another race, followed home by Seb Duesbury and Ollie Shaw.

Heat 9

loan Evans lines up next to Tyus Stevens for the last heat of the day. A quick starting Seb Duesbury instantly manages to overtake Thomas Oxley off the line for P5. Some masterful overtaking sees James Brown come through the field from P4 to P1 in a short amount of laps. Seb continuing to slice his way through the pack to get himself up into P2, followed very closely by Thomas Oxley. A quiet race for Hugo Cunningham was ruined at the end after a spin dropped him to the back of the pack late on. James Brown wins ahead of Seb Duesbury and Thomas Oxley.

Junior 'B' Final

With it all to play for in the 'B' final, the eventual winner would get to join the 'A' finalists. Oliver Aloul deservedly starting in pole position followed by Hugo Cunnington and Tyus Stevens.

A clean get away by all and a very close first lap sees no positional change between the drivers. P3 driver Tyus Stevens was trying hard, however, unfortunately had a spin at the turn 3 hairpin, demoting him down the order. Oliver Aloul was again demonstrating what a strong driver he is, slowly pulling away from the chasing pack headed by Hugo Cunnington.

A forceful Tyus Stevens was trying to regain the ground lost after his earlier spin, he was all over the back of Euan Allison, and makes an opportunistic move into turn 2, Tyus made the move stick, however, Euan repaid the favour going into turn 3.

Further back, P4 racer Bhavmeet Singh was hanging on to the back of Ioan Evans, trying to force the young driver into a mistake, but another mature drive from Ioan prevented this. The top 4 drivers were throughout were covered only by a short distance.

A hectic last lap saw Harry Knowles spin out at turn 8 shortly followed by Hugo Cunnington at turn 3, keeping the marshals very busy! Another win by Oliver Aloul seals his inclusion to the 'A' final. Ioan Evans brings his kart home 2nd followed by Bhavmeet Singh in 3rd.

Junior 'A' Final

After winning the 'B' final, Oliver Aloul joins at the back of the 'A' final led by a dominant Jordan Cain and James Brown.

A fast reacting Alex Bomberg disposes of James Brown going into turn 1. There's a lot of contact going into turn 2 which allows Jordan to pull a gap from the karts behind and allows James to get back past Alex. Further back, a good start from Thomas Oxley sees him instantly challenge Oliver Flexen for P5.

Oliver Flexen demonstrated some excellent defensive driving throughout the heats, and this carried over to the final, managing to keep several drivers behind him. However, going through the chicane, an ever determined Thomas Oxley placed his kart on the inside of Oliver Flexen, forcing him wide, allowing Seb Duesbury to also gain a position. Thomas now set his sights on catching P4 racer Nathan Smith.

James Brown was doing an excellent job of keeping Nathan Smith and a fast approaching Thomas Oxley behind him. The chequered went out and it was yet another win for Jordan Cain followed by James Brown and Alex Bomberg.
