

Spring Round 4

7th June 2015

Juniors

Inkart Championship 2015

Heat 1

Alessandro Smith on pole position for Heat 1 Brandon Lloyd and Oliver Flexen just behind. Jordan Cain managed to jump from 5th to 2nd in the first lap of racing then went on to take the race lead on lap 2 being the only driver setting 33s lap-times. On lap 3, red flags were called for an incident involving Championship

Leader Nathan Murphy, the damaged kart was replaced and racing re-commenced. Jordan took the race win ahead of Brandon Lloyd and Nathan Smith.

Heat 2

Jordan Cain on pole position ahead of Nathan Smith and Alex Bomberg. Lights to flag win for Jordan Cain as he gets ever closer to his personal best lap-times, Nathan Smith struggled as he dropped behind Alex Bomberg and Brandon Lloyd into 4th position. Jordan took an easy race win 9 seconds ahead of Alex who was a further 3 seconds ahead of Brandon.

Heat 3

James Brown and Thomas Oxley made up the front row of the grid, Oliver Flexen and Seb Duesbury on the 2nd row. A very strong race from James as he managed to hold off the pack to take the heat win. Thomas finished a close 2nd and had numerous looks at an overtake but couldn't make any stick. Nathan Murphy came through from 5th position to take 3rd position while Jordan struggled after starting 10th.

Heat 4

Championship Leader Nathan Murphy on pole for the final heat. Jordan again made a good start moving up into 3rd position by lap 5. It was Alex and Thomas who lost out as a result of this dropping to 4th and 5th respectively. Oliver Flexen had a good race making his way into 6th by the chequered flag after starting 8th on the grid.

The Final

Jordan Cain put himself on pole position after some strong results in the heats, Nathan Murphy and Thomas Oxley 2nd and 3rd. Jordan got a good start and immediately started to pull away. Nathan and Thomas stayed in position as the race was heating up behind them. Seb Duesbury struggled and dropped back behind James, Oliver, Nathan Smith and Alex down into 8th position. Brandon also dropped down into 9th in the opening laps. Back at the front Jordan was really getting his head down pulling away from Nathan and Thomas, on lap 8 he set a new lap record of 32.986 seconds. He then continued to go faster when on lap 14 of 15 he set a lap-time of 32.913 seconds. New outright lap record! Jordan took the final win ahead of Nathan and Thomas.

Nathan Murphy took the Championship win ahead of Thomas Oxley and Jordan Cain finished in 3rd position.

